Financial DNA Natural Behavior Summary Report for: Adam Crompton
Your DNA Natural Behavior Style: Influencer

Influencers usually like to take all opportunities for being in front of people and to be at the center of decision-making. They are able to engage and motivate people into action through their powerful verbal talents and overall level of enthusiasm. They will wholeheartedly invest time and effort into developing others and their personal performance towards goals, particularly strategies that they see significant potential in.

Summary of DNA Natural Behavior - The 10 Unique Styles

The graph below shows the 10 DNA Natural Behavior Styles in relation to one another. Your style is highlighted in the graph. This will help you to see your instinctive behavioral similarities and differences to other styles more clearly.

Based on your factor scores, your 2 strongest behavioral factors are:

- * Pioneer - Sets direction, ambitious, committed to goals
- * Take Charge - Definite in approach, visionary in thinking, focused on outcomes

The behavioral biases that may naturally be exhibited with these factors are:

- Optimism Bias: Exhilarated by playing a big game even if they know it is difficult to win.
- Consolidated View: Prefers looking at the whole portfolio rather than individual positions.

Natural Behavior Portfolio Risk Group

The Natural Behavior Portfolio Risk Group that should be considered as a starting point in determining the structure of your investment portfolio is indicated below. The Portfolio Risk Group shown below has been determined based on the blend of your Natural Behavior Risk Propensity and Risk Tolerance Scores as summarized in the table above.

Based only on your Natural Behavior Risk Score, your Portfolio Risk Group is Group 4.

Your Overall Portfolio Risk Group that is ultimately used in the Financial Plan and Investment Policy Statement will also be influenced by other factors. Prior to determining your final Portfolio Risk Group, please review the following with your advisor to determine the portfolio that is most suitable for you.

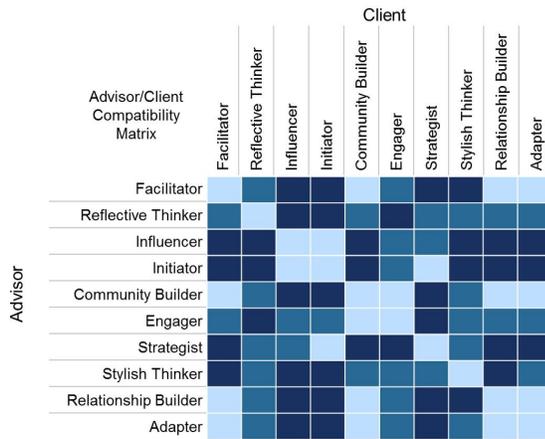

- Your goals and current financial capacity as shown in the Investment Portfolio Risk Reward Analysis table in Appendix Section 1.
- Learned risk behavior motivations that have evolved from circumstances, experiences, and education as shown in the Potential Learned Behavior Risk Motivations Table in Appendix Section 2.

Advisor/Client Compatibility

A strong long-term relationship with others can be built with commitment and mutual understanding. Successful relationships can be developed from any combination of behavioral style.

The graph below shows, for the Influencer style, those persons whom you will most easily work with in a team because you are generally closer in relationship style, and hence minimal behavioral modification required. Also, it shows those DNA Natural Behavior styles with whom you will have to more closely review how you each adapt because there are greater differences, and hence more behavioral modification required.

Adapting your behavior to relate to another person requires concentrating more on your level of self-awareness when you are with that person. However, when a person is different from you there are also many benefits because of their different perspectives. While recognizing that natural behavior is important, also sharing common values, beliefs and attitudes is important for building a successful relationship.

Key Financial Planning Questions for you to Consider

1. Influencers have a strong desire to be seen as successful. What is motivating the goals you set? Are you being driven by image? How do you relate your financial and business goals to the quality of your family life? Why is money important to you?
2. As an investor are you devoting sufficient time into choosing the best advisors? Getting this right for you and your behavioral style will ensure that you make effective and successful decisions in terms of your finances. What might be the limitations in your own decision making style? Describe the behavioral style of an advisor, coach or mentor you think would be most beneficial to you.
3. How would you handle associates or family members whose decision making style in terms of financial planning and investment opportunities was uncertain and slow? Is your enthusiasm intimidating to quieter and more reflective behavioral styles? Would their procrastination affect you? What steps do you think you would need to take to help them get to a place of confidence in their decision making?
